Thursday November 6, 2019 Research Session- Cincinnati Children's

Cincinnati has always been proud to partner with patients and families and believe firmly that they can learn from this dialog. In this spirit, they are opening the Thursday Research Sessions of this year's CURED conference to patients and families, as well as its primary audience of study investigators, healthcare providers and researchers.

Please note that there WILL NOT be child care services offered on Thursday, Nov. 7th and children under age 14 will NOT BE allowed inside the auditorium. Please make plans accordingly.

The health care providers and researchers participating in the conference are committed to the highest standards of safe and ethical care and so are not able to engage in individual consultations or to answer specific questions about the diagnosis or treatment of individual patients at this conference.

Thank you for understanding.
